

When I Fall In Love

1958

Blue and Red unite,
Hand in hand we stand here
As we pledge in loyalty
To stay blended as one forever and keep vivid the memories unsaid,
Of the French and the Spanish clasping,
Hands entwined by the blue and the red.

Now that we are one
And the war has ended
We will stand, the test of time
Through the days we were divided
We have shown that our love will not fade,
And the ties that will keep us united,
Is devotion to friends we have made.

Praise the Red team's fight
Ring the bell of friendship.
O'er the land we stand tonight
Proudly holding high the honor endowed by Sag'raw.
Return again as sisters all.
