

Senior alma mater – As Sisters

As sisters we are blending, our friendships unending
In happiness spending, our summer with you
In love we have chosen to honor with devotion
In truest emotion, Saginaw Senior Hill
Through Acropolis proudly sounding
All our praises are resounding
Of the love and the belonging that we bring to thee
As torches are lighted, so our hearts become ignited
Acropolis united, we're pledged now to you
