

God Lifts Up His Palette
(sung to the tune of The High and The Mighty)

God lifts up His palette and Camp Sag'naw grows as His colors flow He created a living portrait placed in a gilded frame Fields of green were blended with the golden sun and as day was done God looked over the beauty wrought with pride in His heart proclaimed:
"I give this camp to thee If you will pledge to me to set its heart in motion.
Now my masterpiece is done its life has just begun blend colors of emotion": red is the warmth that we feel golden friendships we seal, blue the sadness of parting.
Sisters, we'll return again our spectrum yet to blend as Saginaw lives on.
